Marwa Jameel (ANutr)

Associate Nutritionist
Cairo, Egypt

Summary

I am a recent BSc Nutrition, Health, and Exercise graduate with First-Class Honours from Kingston University, seeking graduate-level opportunities in nutrition or public health. During my degree, I engaged in various volunteering roles, including nutritional support for teenagers, family public health initiatives, environmental health efforts, child obesity prevention, and mental health support. I am a positive, enthusiastic individual with excellent written and verbal communication skills and a strong interest in scientific research across nutrition and public health.
